

Preliminary schedule Research communication, 7.5 credits

Teachers from ORU:

Sara Arvidson, Head of Communications
Magnus Boström, Professor of Sociology
Åke Grönlund, Professor of Informatics
Linda Harradine, Research Communicator
Maria Ojala, Associate Professor Psychology

External guest teacher:

Sarah R. Davies, Professor of Technosciences, Materiality, and Digital Cultures, University of Vienna.

In addition, the course will include taped interviews with various scholars who have been successful or have important experiences in research communication.

More info about the content of the course will be provided in late September.

Tentative outline:

Course module 1: Researcher's role in society

Tuesday, 5 October, 13.15-16.00
Introduction of course
Lecture: Researcher's role in society
Teachers: Maria Ojala, Magnus Boström

Tuesday, 12 October, 13.15-15.00
Lecture: How to cope with knowledge resistance
Teachers: Maria Ojala, Magnus Boström

Tuesday, 19 October, 13.15-15.00
Workshop: What's the value and purpose of science communication?
Guest teacher: Sarah R. Davies (University of Vienna)

Monday, 25 October, 13.15-16.00
Seminar: Reflections on research communication
Teacher: Maria Ojala

Course module 2: Planning and integrating research communication

Thursday, 4 November, 13-15-16.00
Lecture: Planning and integrating research communication.
Teachers: Linda Harradine and Magnus Boström

Thursday, 11 November, 13-15-15.00

Seminar: Planning and integrating research communication

Teacher: Åke Grönlund

Thursday, 25 November, 13-15-15.00

Seminar: Planning and integrating research communication. Presenting and discussing research communication plans.

Teachers: Linda Harradine and Magnus Boström

Course module 3: Practical exercises

Monday 6/12, 9.15-12

Seminar: Oral presentations

Teachers: Sara Arvidson and Linda Harradine

Monday 13/12, 10.15-12

Seminar: Press release and debate article

Teachers: Sara Arvidson and Linda Harradine

Monday 17/1, 9.15-12

Seminar: Social media

Teachers: Sara Arvidson and Linda Harradine