Macrobond

Macrobond is installed in the computer room L151 at the School of Business, as well as on several computers at the University Library.

The program is only available to students at the School of Business. Contact the School of Business for login details to Macrobond.

At the University Library, the computers with Macrobond are located on the first floor (ground floor).

Plan 1