

CFS seminars Spring 2019

CFS Members: CFS Business Meeting before each seminar at 13:00-14:00 unless otherwise informed

January 29, 14:15 – 16:00, room L132

Lena Gunnarsson, CFS and Örebro University Gender Studies, presents chapters of her forthcoming book on Samtyckesdynamiker (Consent dynamics); in Swedish

February 12, 14-15-16.00, room F2126

Anne-Charlott Callerstig, CFS and Örebro University Gender Studies
Communities of Practice as Gender Mainstreaming Tool

February 26, 14:15 – 16:00, room F2240

Book launch and discussion of Unsustainable Institutions of Men: Transnational Dispersed Centres, Gender Power, Contradictions (Routledge), with Jeff Hearn, Dag Balkmar and Sam de Boise, CFS

March 12, The seminar is postponed to a later date! Tba.

Tobias Axelsson and Sara Fröden, CFS and Örebro Pedagogy
Jämställdhetsintegrering i förskolan/Gender Mainstreaming in preschool (in Swedish)

March 26, 13:00-16:00, room F2240

Amund Rake Hoffart, CFS and Örebro University Gender Studies
Conceptualizing Intersectionality, doctoral mid-seminar, commentator Randi Gressgård, University of Bergen

April 4, 13:00 – 16:00, room F2240

Ida Maria Börjesson, CFS and Örebro University Gender Studies
Networking women - a postfeminist sisterhood? On the gendered orientations of women's career networks, doctoral mid-seminar, commentator Rebecca Selberg, Lund University

April 9, 9.30 in Forumhuset, 2nd floor

"Spikning", Tobias Axelsson spikar sin avhandling, När män möts som pappor. Fadrandets politik och praktik i det jämställda och pappavänliga Sverige.

April 9, 14:15-16:00, room F2240

Garth Stahl, University of South Australia
Masculinities, Margins and Mobilities: Understanding how first-in-family males aspire, transition and experience Australian university life

May 7, 14:15-16:00, room F2240

Sofia Strid, Örebro University Gender Studies
Honour as a border regime: enclosure and mobility as mechanisms of honour based violence in Swedish metropolitan areas

May 10, 10.15, room BIO

Dissertation, Tobias Axelsson, gender studies, will be defending his thesis, När män möts som pappor. Fadrandets politik och praktik i det jämställda och pappavänliga Sverige.

CFS seminars Autumn 2019

CFS Members: CFS Business Meeting before each seminar at 13:00-14:00 unless otherwise informed

October 15, 14.00-16.00, room F2240

Roundtable: Research on Violence, co-arranged with Violence Hub/Research Group on Critical Studies on Men and Masculinities

Roundtable: Research on Violence

Daniel Alsarve, Sport Science, ORU; Rúna Baianstovu, Social Work, ORU; Jeff Hearn, Gender Studies, ORU; Anne Laure Humbert, Oxford Brookes University UK; David Meier-Arendt, Technical University of Darmstadt, Germany; Susanne Strand, Criminology, ORU; Sofia Strid, Gender Studies, ORU

October 29, 14:15 – 16:00, room F2240

Mats Deutschmann, Professor, English, Örebro University

Combatting Gender Stereotyping by Evoking Gender Stereotypes - practical, theoretical and ethical dilemmas encountered in the VR-funded project Raising Awareness through Virtual Experiencing (RAVE)

November 12, 14:15-16:00, room F2240

Mathias Ericson, Gothenburg University, Gender Studies

Gender Research under Threat: Critical Perspectives on Security and Protection

November 26, 14:15-16:00, room F2240

Rebecca Dobre Billström, doctoral student in Musicology and CFS, Örebro University

Feminist musical engagements in a Swedish context

December 3, 13:15 – 16:00, room F2240

Zara Saeidzadeh, Gender Studies, final seminar.

Commentator Professor Mieke Verloo, Radboud University, Nijmegen, Holland

Trans and Sex Change in Contemporary Iran: A Socio-Legal Study of Policies and Practices

December 4, 14:00 – 16:00, room P114 (Please note the time!)

Public seminar with Professor Mieke Verloo, Radboud University, Nijmegen, Holland

Att förstå motståndet mot feministisk politik och jämställdhet i Europa

December 17, 14:15-16:00, room F2240

Kristian Sandbekk Norsted, doctoral student in Cultural Anthropology, Uppsala University.

Feminist activism in Stockholm