

Introduction programme

Autumn semester 2017

August 28 - September 2

 ÖREBRO UNIVERSITY

International Office welcomes you

Congratulations on your admission to a Master's program at Örebro University! Anyone accepted to one of the University's international Master's programs is offered an Introduction programme organized by the International Office. The aim of the Introduction programme is to facilitate you into the Swedish academic system and to help you with necessary information regarding practical matters connected to your arrival here.

We strongly recommend everyone to participate in the activities and information sessions in this programme!

Important information

The Introduction programme is put together by the International Office in collaboration with Program coordinators from each Master program. Therefore you do not have to worry about any lectures or classes clashing with the activities in this programme. However, since this programme goes out to all master students, you will not find dates or times for lectures or classes connected to your program. This information you will receive from your Program coordinator.

Obligatory registration

The registration is done by the School that hosts your Master program. Program coordinators will give you information on when and where you register.

Welcome to Örebro University!
